

BRANDENBURG TRADITIONAL CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Wednesday, 12th December 2018 – 5.30pm to 7.30pm
The Queen's Chapel of the Savoy, London WC2R 0DA

Your Christmas celebrations begin here, with the Brandenburg Singers (Organ - Rupert Jeffcoat, Conductor - Robert Porter) returning for the eighth successive year. Usually offered nationally with a restricted number of tickets per applicant, this year The Brandenburg Choral Festival of London is delighted to present a traditional Christmas Concert especially for the U3A Thames Valley Network.

Accompanied by mulled wine made to an ancient and secret family recipe and mince pies, this concert is guaranteed to get you fully into the Christmas spirit with a wide stylistic range of Christmas-flavoured ethereal music, entertaining readings and opportunities to stretch the vocal chords by joining in with a few traditional and well-known carols.

The Chapel is a semi-secret hidden gem just off the Strand, belonging to her Majesty the Queen in her Right as Duke of Lancaster. It is the last surviving building of a hospital founded by Henry VII for homeless people in 1512. It is a beautiful, intimate space for concerts with a fine acoustic and splendid Walker organ.

The Brandenburg Singers is a small hand-picked group drawn from the finest of the members of the 150 choirs that perform in the Brandenburg Choral Festival of London. The concert will be introduced and conducted by Bob Porter – Artistic Director of the Brandenburg Choral Festival of London.
