

Saying it with Flowers

Wednesday, 7th April at 10.30a.m.–12.30p.m. on Zoom

Talk & Demonstration by Katherine Kear

This study day will explore the symbolic meanings given to flowers and how it affected floral arrangements during history. We are extremely fortunate to have Katherine Kear as our speaker. She is the National chairman of NAFAS (National Association of Flower Arrangement Societies), a national speaker and teacher, a regular broadcaster on the radio and author of several publications on all things floral including myths, legends and folklore. She will offer us two 45 minute lectures and will demonstrate her points in the second by creating a period style of floral arrangement as she talks.
