

The Great Exhibition of 1851 and its legacy

Tuesday, 7th February at 10.30 a.m. on Zoom

A talk by David Morton on the history of the Great Exhibition, an idea from Prince Albert to showcase the art, design, and manufacturing of the British Empire. It follows the controversial design, build and subsequent history of The Crystal Palace. We also learn about the legacy of The Great Exhibition and what remains today.

Fee for this event is £1. Please book electronically by clicking on the 'TICKETSOURCE' icon immediately below the event on www.u3atvnetwork.org.uk This is by far the best and easiest option. You will receive an acknowledgement immediately and the Zoom link about 48 hours before the event. If you experience any difficulty, please email the organiser David Morton on davidmorton57@gmail.com with your name and the u3a to which you belong.

If you have not received the Zoom link by midday on Monday, 6th February please email the organiser as above. Please do not wait until the day of the event.

Closing date Sunday, 5th February (No further applications after this date)

To receive details of future TVN events, please send your name and preferred email address to events_info@u3atvnetwork.org.uk