

Tuesday, 8th October – National Memorial Arboretum

Times and details to be confirmed; but leave at 0800 arrive 1020 ish, have refreshments. Then we have a walking guided tour (2 groups with 2 guides) . We have lunch and then do the train ride with commentary.

There will be time for a toilet break before heading home about 3.30pm so should arrive back 5.30pm ish.

The costs are to be finalised but the coach, refreshments and one course lunch with drink (we should get a private space to eat so no queuing etc), and the guides etc will work out at about £48 each.

There will be a deposit required of £25 to cover the NMA requirements and the cost of the coach. Deposits, as normal, are non refundable unless you find someone to go in your stead.

Any money left over will be donated to the NMA. I will confirm this cost by the monthly meeting. If doing a bank transfer please use NMA as reference.
